Who We Are

An educational program in Addis Ababa founded by Columbia University students in 2014, our organization aims to improve the experiences of Ethiopian highschool students applying to U.S institutions to pursue their higher education.

A desk with a stack of books, a spiral notebook with handwritten text, a pen, and a small envelope with a wax seal. The scene is dimly lit, creating a focused and studious atmosphere.

Our Mission:

Address, educate, coordinate and provide guidance to highschool students in Ethiopia who want to pursue their education abroad through SAT tutoring, college application demystification and mentorship.
